SUBJECT.

In re restoration of the resumed Cash grant of Rs 94-2-3 endowed to the Sri Kylaseswaraswami temple at Thonnur French Rocks Sub Taluk.

From

The D/ Commr and the Inam Superintt

Last ref^e No. 102 Dated 21st March 1905

During the Inam Settlement in 1879, the annual Cash grant of Rs 94-2-3 attached to the Sri Kylaseswara Swami Temple at Thonnur, was resumed, owing to the then disrepaired condition of the mutt & the non-performance of services therein.

One Narasimha Bhatta & certain others of Thonnur village petitioned this office praying for the restoration of the resumed Cash grant to enable them to repair the mutt. A report having been called for, the D/ Commr of the Mysore D.t states that the temple is in disrepair, that the cost of renovating it amounts to about 5 or 6 thousand rupees & that when the Mysore Secretary visited the place, the people represented the matter to him and they were told that if they carried out the repairs, the restoration of the resumed grant would be considered.

I do not think the resumed grant should be restored before the people restore the temple to some extent at least.
